

Tongue Twisters

- Tom Thumb thought that there were tough things to thoroughly throttle to thrive through tough times. (th and t)
- Jim Janes jealously jammed the jagged jade juice jar into the jug resulting in junk. (j)
- Harry Himes historically has ham hocks and hot honey at home. (h)
- Ida Eaton is the eldest inmate and every inch an effective, interesting, and influential intellect. (i and e)
- The guide, Gabriel George, gave Gloria Grove gobs of golden globs of good grapes. (g)
- Robert worked hard in the wild world and played cards. (w)
- I worked because I needed to, but, then, I opened a beer and played cards. (stress “ed” in past tense)
- Thank those mothers who think great thoughts for their kids. (th)
- I parked the car at the curb on the curve and then ate berries or very bright cherries. (b and v)
- I am going to Yale, but Jim is going to jail. (y and j)
- Choose shoes for washing chairs and not watching shares. (ch and s)
- Which shoes should she choose or should she purchase cheaper shoes? (ch and s)
- Sometimes I feel like I’m from some distant time. (mes and m)
- Sit and live and fill the hills with thrills. (i and l)

