

Questions

There are two types of questions: yes/no and information.

Yes/No Questions

1. The answer is “yes” or “no”
2. In a question with the verb “to be” (am, are, is), the verb moves to the front of the sentence.

Am/Are/Is	Subject
Am	I	fluent?
Are	we you they	good at English?
Is	he she it	from Tibet?

3. In a question with an action verb, you need to add do or does.

Do/Does	Subject	Verb
Do	I we you they	study English?
Does	he she it	work today?

Information Questions

1. The answer is NOT “yes” or “no”
2. The answer gives more details (information)
3. Information questions have questions words—who, what, where, why, when, how

Question Word	To Be	Subject
Where	am	I?
Who	is	he? she? it?
How	are	we? you? they?

4. In a question with an action verb, you need to add do or does.

Question Word	Do/Does	Subject	Verb
Why	do	I you they we	study?
Where	does	he she it	go?