

You and the student will take turns helping each other complete the crossword by explaining the words that one has that the other doesn't (so, for example, tutor will describe the horizontal words and student will describe the vertical words. That way you will each fill in the crossword, and they will match.

Crossword Hints

Author—a person who wrote a book

Book—something you borrow from a library that has writing and pictures

Computer—a machine for typing and using the internet

Cover— front and back of a book

Ebook—an electronic book

Illustration—a picture or image in a book

Internet—you can check email or use Google on it

Librarian—a person who administers or assists in a library

Library card—an ID that allows you to check out books

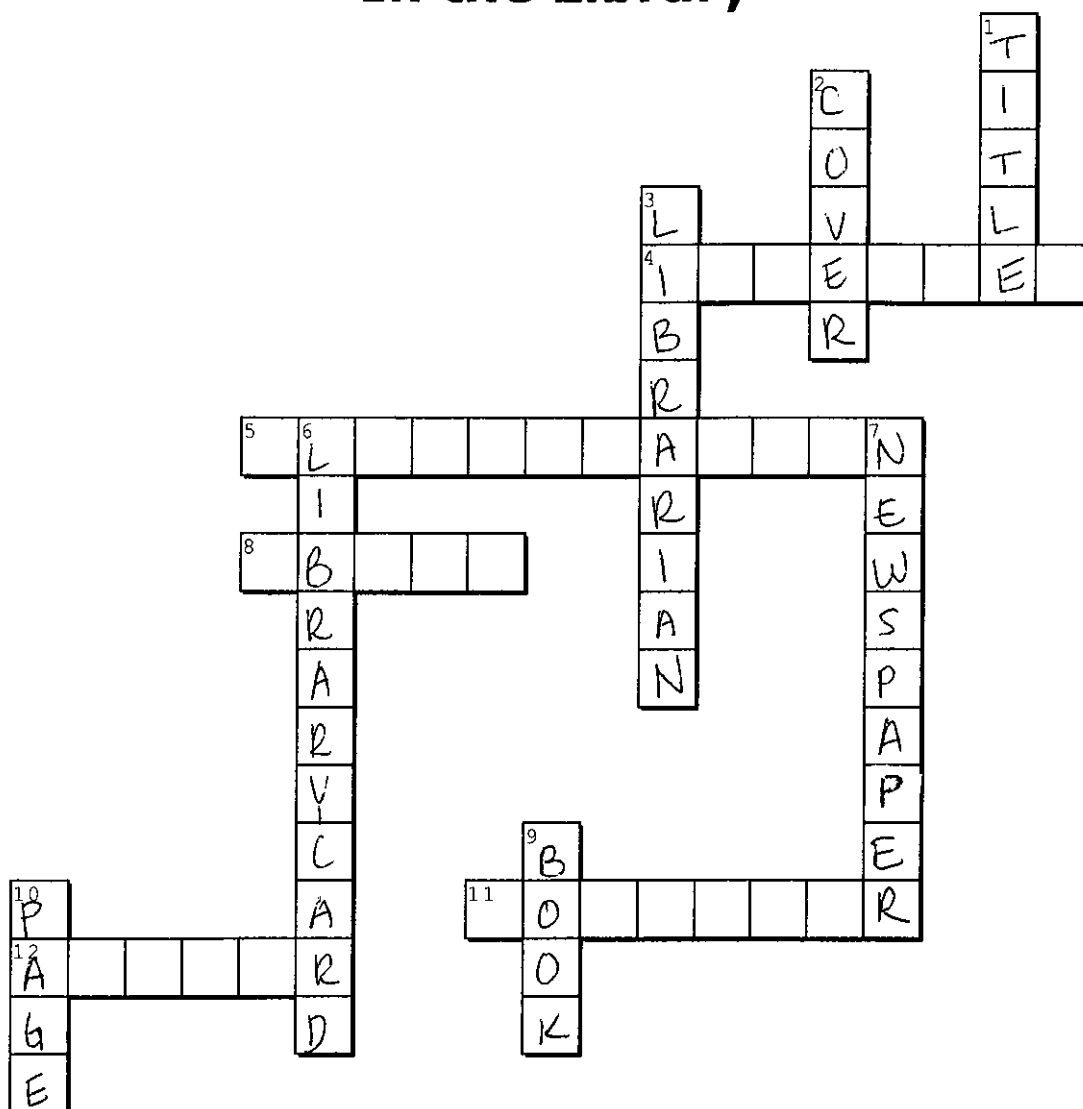

Newspaper—something you read for the news

Page—a sheet of paper in a book

Title—the name of a book

In the Library

Name: _____

In the Library

