

Asking for Help

The last time I asked for help was at work. I had many books and bags to take to put in my cars. My coworker, Brian, was working with me, so I asked him to help me. I said, "Brain, can you help me carry these books and bags to my car please?" He helped me carry everything to my car. It was very helpful!

When was the last time you asked for help? Where did you ask for help? Who did you ask? What did you say?
