

Your Rights at Work

1. What is the minimum wage in Wisconsin?
 - a. $5.00
 - b. $7.25
 - c. $10.00
2. How many hours a week must I work before I get overtime pay?
 - a. 8 hours
 - b. 20 hours
 - c. 40 hours
3. To file a complaint about your supervisor, you should
 - a. Speak to your manager in a private meeting
 - b. Give a letter or note (something in writing) to your manager
2. If you do not have a union, can your boss fire you without a reason?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
3. Is it discrimination if your supervisor says that you cannot speak your native language (Spanish, Chinese) at work?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
4. Is it discrimination if your supervisor treats you badly because you are not white?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
5. Is it discrimination if your supervisor treats you badly because you have a different religion?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
6. Does your job have to offer paid vacation days or paid sick days?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
7. If you work for a big company, can you take 2 months off of work when you have a baby?
 - a. True
 - b. false

8. If you have a sick child at home and you call in sick, can your boss fire you if you don't come to work?
- a. Yes
 - b. No
9. Can your supervisor treat you differently because you filed a complaint against him?
- a. Yes
 - b. No
10. If you go to the Worker's Rights Center for help, what should you try to bring with you?
- a. Your employer's address
 - b. Your pay stub
 - c. Your personnel file
 - d. a, b and c
11. An employer is required to provide any personal protective equipment that is needed for a job.
- a. True
 - b. false
12. If you fall and hurt your leg while you are taking out the garbage at work, does your company have to pay for the medical bills?
- a. Yes
 - b. No
13. You are not eligible for unemployment pay if you quit or are fired from a job.
- a. True
 - b. False
14. If you have not been paid correctly you can go back _____ years to collect unpaid wages.
- a. 1
 - b. 2
 - c. 5
15. What else did you learn about your rights at work?

